Joining us from November 23-24, Prof Miquel Lladó will lead an insightful overnight masterclass exploring how best to respond to the challenges leaders face today.

Leaders will be able to learn from real life business case studies as we lift the lid on capturing, retaining, developing talent at the world renowned Masia Academy at FC Barcelona.

Prof Lladó will also dive into how leaders from major US retailer, JCPenney navigated, devised and implemented strategic changes during turbulent times. We will explore the importance of understanding consumer behaviour and company culture before making disruptive decisions.

Join this masterclass and learn how to:

Broaden your leadership mind-set on ways of developing talent in your organisation

Sharpen your change management skills so relevant now, in the very uncertain trading conditions

Explore with peers what striving for excellence looks like in your leadership role.
