Caroline Kirrane from Trinity Business School and the Institute of Directors returns with a refreshed edition of this practical, hands-on workshop designed for leaders without a finance background.

The session begins with a clear introduction to the three key financial statements: profit & loss, balance sheet, and cash flow, and how to read and interpret them. In the afternoon, we turn to insights from Warren Buffett's shareholder letters to deepen your understanding of valuation, performance, and investment principles.

If you'd like to get more confident with your numbers and contribute meaningfully to financial conversations and decisions, this is the ideal opportunity.
